

Legislature Overrides Sargent Pay Hike Veto

By DAVID R. ELLIS
Staff Writer

Gov. Sargent's veto of the $92.5 million state employee pay raise was not only overridden yesterday by the Legislature, it was bulldozed.

In the House the vote was 195 to 32 to override.

In the Senate it was 31 to 5.

The governor needed one third of the votes in either chamber to sustain his veto, and he didn't come close.

In fact, the Legislature voted by about 6 to 1 to override.

In a morning press release from the governor's office, he promised a "full-scale effort to win legislative support for" the veto.

After the vote was taken in the Senate he held the vote "an outrage" but said his efforts had "come close," particularly in the Senate.

Sargent has endorsed a pay raise, with a limit of $65 million as the total cost. He called the larger increase granted by the Legislature "a pay grab."

SARGENT Page 10

All-Star Downpour

THUNDERSTORM of all-star proportions drenched the Washington, D.C., area and Robert F. Kennedy Memorial Stadium for several hours yesterday and forced postponement of baseball's 40th All-Star Game last night. It has been rescheduled for today at 1:45. At left, water cascades over the steps of the American League's dugout. It was the first postponement in the history of the series. Story, Page 43. (AP photo)

The Boston Globe

VOL. 106
NO. 23

By GLOBE NEWSPAPER CO.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 23, 1969

®

Telephone 288-8000

52 PAGES—10c

MEMBERS OF KENNEDY FAMILY ARRIVE AT PLYMOUTH, PA., CEMETERY
... Sen. and Mrs. Edward Kennedy, followed by Mrs. Ethel Kennedy (Globe Staff photo by Tom Landers)

His Wife, Sister-in-Law Also Attend Rites

Bandaged Kennedy at Girl's Funeral

By JEREMIAH V. MURPHY
Staff Writer

PLYMOUTH, Pa. — The white sedan stopped in front of St. Vincent's Church yesterday morning, and Sen. Edward Kennedy painfully got out. Photographers and television crews surrounded him.

He had come to attend the funeral of Mary Jo Kopechne, and he looked tired when he saw dozens of newsmen.

This was his first public appearance since Miss Kopechne drowned early Saturday on Martha's Vineyard. The crowd of 400 waiting outside the church kept moving toward him.

"There he is! There he is!" a middle-aged woman yelled as Kennedy tried to get through to the old red brick rectory.

He was wearing a soft bandage to protect his neck. Because of it he couldn't button the top button of his white shirt. His black tie was loosened, and he was wearing a black suit.

His wife, Joan, and Mrs. Ethel Kennedy were with him. Lemoyne Billings, Dunn Gifford, Dave Burke and two policemen helped them through the crowd into the rectory.

Ted kept his eyes on the ground, and everybody in the group looked sad and older, not smiling and breezy, the usual Kennedy style.

The bell in the church was tolling. After a while the hearse carrying Miss Kopechne's body moved slowly past the wooden frame houses in this northeastern Pennsylvania town.

The people outside the church were quiet. The skies were grey, and it was getting hot and muggy.

FUNERAL Page 2

Kennedy Vows Full Statement

By RICHARD A. POWERS and ROBERT B. KENNEY
Staff Writers

EDGARTOWN — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy pledged yesterday a full, public statement regarding the week-end auto accident that took the life of a 28-year-old Washington secretary.

Visibly shaken upon his return to Hyannisport from services in Pennsylvania for Miss Mary Jo Kopechne, Kennedy told a milling horde of newsmen the statement would be made "at an appropriate time."

"I have just come from the funeral of a lovely young girl and this is not an appropriate time (to comment)," the senator said.

KENNEDY Page 2

Parliament Accepts Prince Juan Carlos Franco Announces His Successor

By LOREN JENKINS
Washington Post

MADRID—With tears glistening in his eyes and his voice choking with emotion, Generalissimo Francisco Franco yesterday proposed Prince Juan Carlos be named his legal successor and heir to the vacant throne of Spain.

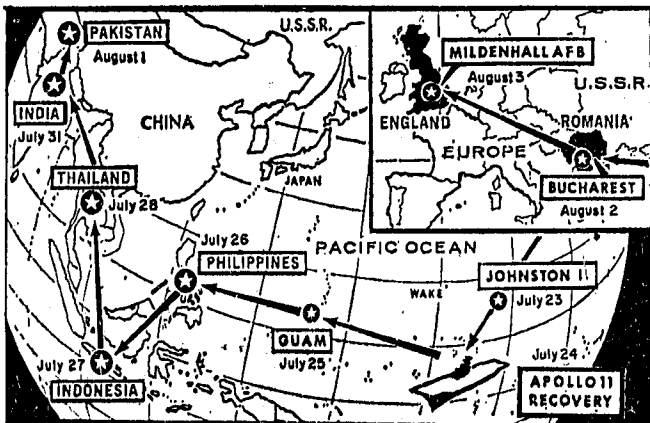

In a moving 23-minute speech before the 564-member Cortes (Legislature), the 76-year old Spanish ruler said he was proposing the 31-year old prince because he was "conscious of my responsibilities before God and history."

The gala-bedecked Cortes, which repeatedly sought to sustain Franco's spirits during his emotional speech with standing ovations and chants of "Franco, Franco," overwhelmingly voted approval, naming the grandson of Spain's last king as the Prince of Spain and the automatic successor to Franco when the aging chief of state either retires or dies.

SPAIN Page 8

Nixon to See Splashdown, Then Tour World

By JAMES DOYLE
Globe Washington Bureau

STOPS ON PRESIDENT NIXON'S 12-DAY TRIP (UPI)

WASHINGTON — President Nixon left Washington late last night en route to watch the Pacific Ocean splashdown of the Apollo 11 astronauts, the first leg of a 24,000-mile, 12-day journey around the world for the President.

Ten days after he returns, on Aug. 13, the President will be host at a dinner for the astronauts in Los Angeles, he announced.

It will be the finals of a day of ticker-tape parades for the spacemen in New York and Chicago.

Press Secretary Ronald Zeigler said the President proposed the parades and the dinner to the National Aeronavics and Space Administration and that the agency agreed.

The astronauts will be in isolation until Aug. 11.

NIXON Page 5

WEATHER/INDEX

Not Bad		Features
WEDNESDAY — Fair, warm.	THURSDAY — Cloudy, little temperature change. (Page 50).	High Tides 6:12 a.m. 6:36 p.m.
Bridge	47	Financial	21-25
Class	30-41	Obituaries	20
Comics	51	Sports	42-47
Crossword	51	TV-Radio	50
Deaths	20	Theaters	48, 49
Editorials	18	Women	26-29

What Is It?

THERMASOL HOME STEAM BATH
FOR a stall shower or tub...

The Newton plumber who placed this Want Ad in The Globe claims a steam bath is the ideal way to lose weight. He just happens to have a spare steam bath to sell.

Outdoor exercise is another great way to lose those extra pounds. So buy a boat. Best place to do your shopping is Globe Classified. Last year alone, Globe Classified carried 63% of all boat ads appearing in major Boston newspapers. So try Globe Classified. And then row, row, row!

Call 282-1500

Stock Market Takes Plunge To 1969 Low

NEW YORK — The stock market took a sharp loss yesterday with the Dow-Jones Industrial average falling to a new low for the year.

The average tumbled 11.9 points, or 1.4 percent, to close at 834.02. It was the lowest the Dow Industrials had closed since the 831.54 of Mar. 26, 1968. The previous 1969 low of 841.13 was set July 15. Story on Page 21.